Continuing our great Festival

In 2008 the Penkhull Festival of Music and Art was successfully rejuvenated. This was achieved through the hard work and dedication of a few local people. From this start the Festival has grown into a remarkable event held each year in our village in Stoke-on-Trent.

As the new Artistic Director my aim is to continue to grow and develop the Festival which showcases professional musicians in the intimate atmosphere of St Thomas's Church and Penkhull Village Hall.

The desire to bring world class music to our area continues the wonderful tradition created by Miss May Walley OBE over a period of 39 years – and developed by Greg Hallam over the last 10 years.

Our Friends and Patrons are the backbone of the Festival, and their ongoing support is hugely valued and appreciated. Mounting the Festival each year is a vast undertaking. Supporting the Festival in this way allows individuals and organisations to help the Festival to grow and develop each year, and sponsorship attracts a range of special benefits. There is a growing number of people who regularly support Penkhull Festival, and we hope to begin widening this important group still further.

This year we have added another level of sponsorship to Friends and Patrons, offering the opportunity to become a Benefactor to the Festival.

I hope that you will be able to support this valuable Festival held each year in September.

Chris Brammeld

Artistic Director

How can you support the Festival?

We have three levels of sponsorship, each offering their own advantages.
